Purpose

Fort Dodge Public Library recognizes the rights of holders of copyright for materials and will not knowingly allow violation of the law either by staff members or by the public.

Policies

Under Copyright Law, illegal duplication or sharing of copyrighted materials is prohibited. Copyrighted materials may include, but are not limited to, all printed matter, audio recordings, video recordings, computer software, databases, and digital files that are owned or licensed by the Library, obtained through interlibrary loan, or downloaded from the Internet.

FDPL shall consider Fair Use Doctrine (Title 17 United States Code, Section 107) or Creative Commons factors when evaluating patron and staff use of materials for the purposes of copyright.

FDPL recognizes the rights of individuals to use materials and will inform them about the limits which the law places on reproduction and performance of such works.

FDPL assumes no legal responsibility for enforcement of copyright.

FDPL assumes neither liability nor responsibility for an individual's actions.

Warnings may be posted on or near all public equipment capable of reproducing or distributing materials including photocopiers, printers, and computers.
