

Fort Dodge Public Library Children's Summer Reading Log

Sponsored by Friends of the Library

This year's log is designed for use by children who reside in Fort Dodge and rural Webster County. Please participate in the Summer Reading Program at your child's local library. Thank you!

There is a limit of one reading log per child.

Literacy Activities for Families and Individuals

Do as many of these activities as often as you can!

Younger Readers

- Name objects and colors inside and outside
- Name each article of clothing as you get dressed
- Name the body parts
- Build with blocks and LEGOS
- Spend lots of time singing together!
- Show family photos
- Play peek a boo
- Have a grown up TELL you a story

For All

Practice the ABCs, shapes, counting, multiplication table, colors, your address, your phone number, date of birth, your first, last and middle name.

Recite what you can!
Write what you can!
As often as you can!

(Even older children forget.)
Put an X on the line each time you do

Older Readers

- Write a Poem or a rhyme
- Look at the Constellations
- Draw a map of your neighborhood, house or school
- Read with a flashlight
- Make or write a card for someone, address an envelope, and mail it.
- Read a book outside
- Do a random act of kindness
- Give an exercise class for your family
